Bridge Chief Among Indoor Sports-Golf Popular With the Outdoor Folk.

UPPER SARANAC, N. Y., July 13.-The season at Saranac Inn is in full swing and before the middle of the month the capacity of the house will be tested to its utmost. A long season is expected, for reservations are being made until late in the fall. The golf links are in splendid condition and the fine weather is increasing interest in all outdoor sports. The best scores of the week in the golfing contingent were made by Thomas Blagden of Washington and Mrs. W. M. Mather of New York. Bathing and swimming are much in vogue and each morning the summer folk assemble on the veranda of the casine to watch the swimmers. Among the ladies are Mrs. Mather, Miss Bad-hausen, the Misses Wolle, Miss Florence Mills and Miss Dorothy Mills.

Here as everywhere bridge is the leading indoor game and a tournament has just been concluded at the inn. Milton Work of Philadelphia brought up a party of men from the Raquette Club for a week of bridge. Included in the party were Messrs. J. E. Atherton, William P. Boas, George Chandler, W. P. Barnshaw, Felix Eckerson, J. P. Gregg and H. E.

Keller.
Chief Justice and Mrs. White have arrived at Saranac Inn and are pleasantly located at the beautiful log cabin in which ex-President and Mrs. Grover Cleveland spent their honeymoon. 'OUEEN OF THE CATSKILLS" Swept by Mountain Breezes.

These are delightful days at Stamford, where the mountain breezes blow, where the air is pure, dry and laden with the aroma of pine and hemiock, at an elevation of 1.800 feet, in the Western Catskills, with every city convenience and amusement; tennis courts, baseball grounds, bowling, boating, babling and many charming drives amid magnifecent scenery.

To lovers of golf Stamford makes a strong appeal. The Stamford Country Club golf links have been put in perfect condition for this season, and well kept greens and a sporty course lures the golfer, while those who do not play roam over the ground, enloying the picturesous scenery.
